

Happy

Picnic

By: Zoe Fang

Happy picnic

This story was based on a true story but some events have been adapted. Originally published in 2018 in China by 3B Book Makers.

No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted in any form or by any means, electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording, or otherwise, without permission of the publisher. For information regarding permission, write to 3B Book Makers, Upper East Side Campus, BIBS, Chaoyang District, Beijing, China.

6525833689137

To my teacher
Mr. Ashley who teaches me how to make a book.

Merry

Merry's dad Merry's mom

Cherry

Cherry's dad Cherry's mom

Levender

Levender's dad Levender's

mom

MERRY

Merry had hair that was like bamboo because most of the time it sticks out.

Her mouth was full of little yellow teeth but not all the time because sometimes she brushes her teeth carefully.

Her eyes were black like the her dad's blackest underwear. Her dad's underwear was always very black because he did not want other people to see it.

She wears different clothes at different times and when she went on the picnic in this story she wore green clothes, which had little pink flowers on it. It was a T-shirt, so it was a little bit cold for her because autumn had just started, so the weather is a little cold. Merry needs to wear long sleeves, which were were light purple. She wore a pink dress that went down to her knees or bit shorter. She decided to wear boots because many people watered the grass and plants, so she thought it would be a little bit wet and also it might rain in that day.

“Can we go now? Can we go now?”asked Merry. Merry was a little girl that is three years old. She had a pony tail hairstyle with bangs. Merry and her family were going to a picnic at a big and beautiful park. Her mom and dad all had short hair. Her mom wore glasses and she was very tall compared to Merry. Her dad didn’t wear glasses but he was very fat. Merry was very exited for the picnic.

Driving

They went down to the first floor taking the elevator from the 25th floor. They went to her mom's car. Merry got inside the car and her mom and dad began putting food and things for the picnic in the boot of the car. Merry brought a bag of things, that she could play with her two friends Cherry and Levender. Merry's mom went up to the driving seat. The leaves almost stopped her from walking because there were so many. Her dad went in the car too and they drove to the park. The park was very close to there home. They could have walked to the park but there were too many things to bring. Merry always talked about how much fun it was going to be.

They are like this in the park.

It was a very sunny day. They went into the park and walked to the other side of the park because the place is where they were having picnic. They could have entered the park from that side, but that door was closed that Day. It was too long for Merry but it was very short for her parents because Merry is too small and it always seemed very far for most of the places she had to walk. The place they decided to have a picnic had a little pond, which had many geese inside.

Merry's family were the family that were never the first to arrive because her mom uses about 2 hours to take a shower and get ready. This was the first time they were the first. After they waited for 5 minutes, which is a long time for Merry, Cherry and her family arrived. Cherry was a little girl that loved playing princes games. She liked to wear green and have her hair down. Her mom liked to have two pigtails beside her ears. Her dad had two ears that could not hear very well. Her dad was very tall and he liked to wear grey clothes. When Merry and Cherry saw each other they ran to hug each other.

While they were walking to the place they talked about the fun things that happened to them. The two little girls were running and their parents stayed walking at the back.

When they arrived at the place their parents started to prepare the picnic. Merry showed Cherry the toys they could play at the party.

"It is soooooo cool I haven't seen any of them! But I also have taken some little toys, too." "Oh yeah! Let's play with them." While they were playing the toys, Lavender came with her parents.

"Hey guys how are you?
Sorry I am late I haven't been to this park before we are missing in the park. This park is great!" Lavender said.
She is also a little girl
that is a little bit smaller then Cherry and Merry. She looks like Merry very much but she didn't have the little pony tail hairstyle (bamboo hair).

When their parents finished decorating the place Merry's mom called "Time to eat!" nobody answered. Merry's mom got an idea, "If you guy don't eat we are going eat all of them."

"Hey they are ours!" The three little girl shouted. When they arrived at the place, the parents had spent a long time decorating that the girls couldn't believe it. It was full of yummy food that was calling them.

"Yeah! Sandwich" Merry shouted. "Little tomato come here and I will eat you all!" said Cherry in a sneer. "Oh cucumber I have waited you for a long time, come here!" said Lavender in a voice that is like the cucumber's mom. You might think the foods will cry or something but they did not. After chatting about the foods Lavender's dad called "Food hunters time to eat!"
"Here we come!" Lavender answered to her dad.

"Eww that is so disgusting there are so much poops here." Merry said quietly to her dad.

"Oh that is natural dogs need to... Is that poops under my shoe?" Merry's dad was trying to not shout but Merry realized he might have stood in a big pile of dog poo.

"I think so daddy I think it is dogs poop."
Merry made a joke on his dad she know it was just some grass stuck together.
"I think you are right my little Merry
there is so much poop here" her dad said in a sincere voice.

"Oh please my husband it is just some grass stuck together." Merry's mom said back to her dad.

"Ok let just enjoy the foods we have."
Cherry's mom called them back.

I WILL EAT YOU!

After they finished eating the food they played games and relaxed, the three little girls that were still playing with their toys and the parents were still talking and also getting ready for the next game. Later Lavender's mom shouted to the girls "time for the next game!" They ran there to play the first game climbing trees. Merry didn't know how to climb trees so she could only sit there and watch them climbing trees. Cherry was very good at climbing trees and things. Most of them didn't know what the adult were going to do. First it was Cherry's dad and he only got to the middle part and he fell down because he was tall so it was a tiny distance for him.

After the parents finished climbing the tree, which was so embarrassing for them and funny for the children, it was the two little girls turn.

First, it was Cherry in the children group her dad helped her to begin with and she easily got on to the top of the tree. Everyone clapped for Cherry except for Merry who stomped her feet and clapped her hands. She was almost sleeping from looking at the parents climbing the tree.

Her dad was the second last so when he saw Merry almost sleeping her dad called her up and when she was not sleepy at all it was Cherry's turn, so she stomped her feet and claped.

When they had finished climbing trees they counted which one had climbed the highest and of course it was Cherry. They put a string on it to remember that this was the tree that Cherry climbed. They went back to do the things they wanted again. Levender's mom called them back then she said "5 more minutes then we are going home." All the children didn't want to hear that word now because they were not finished playing with the toys and they all answered back "It should be 5 more hours!" Lavender's mom answered back "No it is 5 more minutes." while they were arguing 5 hour or minutes 5 minutes had gone and it was finished. The three girls had to go. After Merry and her parents went home she said "I want to have more picnics like this."

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Zoe Fang is a girl that really likes drawing. This is her first published book. She is from Beijing China. This book was influenced by her teacher Mr. Ashley. This story is a true story but she can't remember it very well, so she try to make some details up. Zoe wrote this story when she was in grade 3.

Come and have a picnic with us!